

Meeting with the Consortium CALDO of Canadian Universities

On April 10th, 2019, the International Relations Affairs (ARI) of UFABC welcomed professors and graduate students to take part in the presentation of the Consortium CALDO of the Canadian Universities. In the meeting, Rodrigo Delgado (Executive Director - The CALDO Consortium) and Cristian Gonzalez-Paez (Regional Manager - Americas, International Relations and Recruitment of University of Alberta) presented information and opportunities in Graduate Programs and research internships for those interested, as well as prospecting new partnerships for students' and professors' mobility and research.

Founded in 2011, CALDO offers free support and orientation for potential candidates regarding how to Graduate Programs and the application process, disseminating information on fellowship's options. Currently, CALDO works with students from Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, and Uruguay, assisting approximately 4000 Latin-Americans students (<https://caldo.ca/>).

The event counted with the presence of Rodrigo Delgado, and Cristian Gonzalez-Paez, and UFABC's professors Wagner Carvalho (vice-president), Charles Morphy D. Santos (Provost of Graduate Studies), João Paulo Gois (Vice-Provost of Graduate Studies), Dalmo Mandelli (International Relations Advisor), and Arnaldo Rodrigues Santos (Head of the Innovation Agency).

From left to right. Arnaldo R. Santos (Inova, UFABC), Rodrigo Delgado (CALDO), João Paulo Gois (ProPG, UFABC), Dalmo Mandelli (ARI, UFABC), Charles Morphy Santos (ProPG, UFABC), and Cristian Gonzalez-Paez (CALDO, Alberta University).